

Countdown Techniques For Fall Fatties

OCTOBER/NOVEMBER 2005

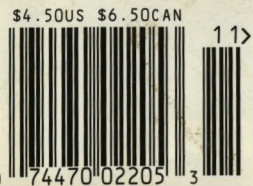

Musky Hunter

NORTH AMERICAN MUSKIE AUTHORITY

1-2
Punch For Fall

4 Key Fall Transition Zones

www.muskyhunter.com

0 74470 02205 3

October/November 2005 • Volume 17, Issue 5

Musky Hunter

North America's Musky Authority Since 1989

FEATURES

30 Multiple Options, Multiple Muskies

In fall, more than ever, you need to keep an open mind about musky fishing. — By Joe Bucher

36 Gettin' Jiggy

Vertical jigging around shad schools is a deadly fall reservoir pattern. — By Mike Hulbert

42 Transition Your Way To Giants

Target transition zones to find the musky of your lifetime. — By Jim Saric

48 1-2 Punch For Fall

Focus on green weeds and the cisco migration, and you'll do just fine. — By Jim Murphy

54 Small In Fall

If you practice and learn on action waters, you'll be ready when a big one bites. — By Kevin Schmidt

60 Countdown To Late Fall

Countdown lures easily reach where muskies live late in the season. — By Doug Smith

66 Fall Trolling Lake St. Clair

Keys to targeting the monsters of the cold weather months. — By Don Miller

70 Confessions Of A ^{Bow} Musky Hunter

There are many similarities between musky hunting and bow hunting ... like asking yourself: which one should I be doing right now? — By Jim Bortz

On The Cover

"Incoming" by artist Steve Miljat, 3705 South Third Street, Milwaukee, WI 53207, telephone (414) 769-9496, www.miljat.com. Contact the artist for print availability.

DEPARTMENTS

5 Editor's Line

It's the little things.

6 Musky Matters

Muskies, Inc. Symposium; St. Lawrence River musky die-off; Canada musky school results; possible largest-ever by a woman; Eagle Tail sold; Frenchy LaMay dies; and more!

26 Lure Doctor

Add color to your livebait fishing.

28 Joe Bucher's Moon Secrets

76 PMTT Tournament Coverage

Dawg time at Eagle River.

78 Trophy Tails/Reader Spotlight

80 Musky Gear

81 Musky Classified

82 Parting Line

A letter from a friend.

